The first system of musical notation consists of three staves. The top staff is a single melodic line in treble clef. The middle and bottom staves are a grand staff in treble and bass clefs. The music features flowing sixteenth-note passages in the upper staves and more static accompaniment in the lower staves. A pp (pianissimo) dynamic marking is present in the middle staff towards the end of the system.

The second system of musical notation consists of three staves. The top staff continues the melodic line with a p (piano) dynamic marking at the beginning. The middle and bottom staves show a change in texture with more active accompaniment. The word dolce assai is written above the middle staff. The word sempre is written below the middle staff, and pp is written below the bottom staff.

The third system of musical notation consists of three staves. The top staff features a series of sixteenth-note runs. The middle and bottom staves continue the accompaniment. A pp dynamic marking is present in the top staff.

The fourth system of musical notation consists of three staves. The top staff has a long melodic phrase marked with an 8va (octave) sign. The middle and bottom staves provide accompaniment. The system concludes with a double bar line.
