Allegro.

Piano.

The musical score is written for piano and consists of five systems. The first system begins with a treble staff containing a melodic line and a bass staff with a rhythmic accompaniment. The second system continues the melody and accompaniment. The third system introduces a crescendo marking. The fourth system features a curtain marking. The fifth system concludes with a forte marking and a final melodic flourish.

Allegro.

The musical score is written for piano and consists of six systems of staves. The key signature is two sharps (F# and C#). The tempo is marked "Allegro." at the top left.

- System 1: The right hand begins with a melody featuring triplet eighth notes, marked mf. The left hand provides a steady accompaniment of eighth notes.
- System 2: The right hand continues the melodic line with various intervals and slurs. The left hand maintains the eighth-note accompaniment.
- System 3: The right hand features more complex phrasing with slurs and ties. The left hand continues the accompaniment.
- System 4: The right hand has a trill marked tr. The left hand continues the accompaniment.
- System 5: The right hand has a trill marked tr. The left hand continues the accompaniment.
- System 6: The right hand has a trill marked tr. The left hand continues the accompaniment.

Dynamics include mf (mezzo-forte), p (piano), pp (pianissimo), and rit. (ritardando). The score includes various musical notations such as slurs, ties, and articulation marks.
