The lowest trees have tops, the ant her gall,
 The fly her spleen, the little spark his heat;
 And slender hairs cast shadows though but small,
 And bees have stings although they be not great;
 Seas have their source, and so do shallow springs,
 And love is love in beggars and in kings.

Where waters smoothest run deep are the fords;
 The dial stirs, yet none perceives it move;
 The firmest faith is in the fewest words;
 The turtles cannot sing and yet they love.
 True hearts have eyes and ears, no tongues to speak;
 They hear and see and sigh, and then they break.
